

Tomás López

Chief Executive Officer

Tomás has unparalleled experience, having worked in the can-making industry since 1980. He became CEO of Mivisa in 2005, leading the company through many years of growth leading to its merger into the group that has become Eviosys.

“With our enormous footprint across EMEA, the launch of Eviosys means a true step-change for the whole industry that will lead to smart sustainable packaging for all.”

John Beardsley

Chief Financial Officer

John's 23 years of financial expertise working in the packaging industry and was appointed Chief Financial Officer at Eviosys in 2021. He has held a variety of senior and strategic positions and has played a vital role in the transformation of the Eviosys business.

François Querrioux

Chief Operating Officer

François has almost 30 years' experience in food packaging. In his role as Chief Operating Officer at Eviosys he leads the Operations and Support functions across all EMEA.

Laurent Watteaux

Chief Administrative Officer

Laurent has a highly successful track record in the packaging/containers and FMCG sectors. He brings his international legal and M&A expertise to the role of Chief Administrative Officer at Eviosys, with responsibility for Human Resources and Legal.

Olivier Aubry

Senior Vice-President, Sales and Marketing

Olivier is a seasoned commercial leader with more than 20 years of international experience and a deep knowledge of the Eviosys business, and the metal packaging market. He leads the sales organisation, marketing and business development teams.

Claudine SchelpSenior Vice-President, Sourcing

Claudine has been leading purchasing organisations at Global and EMEA level for more than 15 years and brings almost 30 years-experience in international purchasing and key account management in the packaging and automotive industries. She is also a member of the Advisory Board of CIPS (Chartered Institute of Procurement and Supply) Switzerland.

